The Age of the Weak.
This is the Age of the Triumph of Weak; the Jiu-Jitsu system of fighting has its equivalent in every action. Popular education is the Jiu-Jitsu; the extension of the political and social enlightenment the spiritual, which is the many to discern the folly of a multitude of superiority assumed by a few.—London Truth.

Matrimony and Genius.
Matrimony is a compromise, a daily series of hearings and forbearings, and the genius is seldom strikingly successful in the role. No man, it is said, is a hero to his own valet. Few men are heroes to their wives, and the poet is often lost in the man who grumbles at his dinner and complains at the amount of the butcher's bill.
